Letters From
The People

WHERE IS THE INSPECTOR?

Editor Advertiser:—With your kind cooperation you will unquestionably suppress one of the most deplorable condition of affairs which now exists in Honolulu. One of the greatest wrongs perpetuated on the public is the selling of decayed meat and fish at the fish-market. The Chinese more particularly that have booths sell the poison and feel relieved when your purchase is exchanged as they are afraid of landing at the police station. They even go further, upon demand made by the purchaser of their vile stuff they will refund the money you paid for your back or carfare as the case may be; but that is far from the point in view; the people that buy such fish or meat very often do not care to waste their time and also sustain the loss of wages to try these culprits before the district magistrate who deserves credit for the manner in which he has dealt with similar cases.

I believe that the inspectors at the fish-market should bring the charges against these offenders, as they have the time, for in case of a woman purchaser one could not expect it of her, the shame of going to court is repulsive.

If you believe, Mr. Editor, that the above condition of affairs do not exist, I can bring proof that will corroborate my statements. I also believe that if you were to ask for names of people, through the columns of your paper, you would receive quite a number that have been uncoined.

I sincerely trust you will help ameliorate conditions before some family is stricken with serious illness derived from the sale of such poisonous food. I am sincerely yours,

JOHN SOUZA CAVACO.

CURIO STORES AGAIN.

Editor Advertiser:—In your issue of yesterday, September 19, there is an article on one Peter Hese, a policeman, who made a reputation and record for himself by putting four Orientals behind the bars for selling merchandise on Sunday. If this is considered such a feat why has he not taken in some of our haole merchants who set the example, and who are usually open and without an exception selling goods when boats are in port. Perhaps he is one of the cold feet officers at such a time. I was promised better rulings than this by the Democrats.

RESIDENT.

THOUSANDS JOIN Y. M. C. A.

There are over half a million members in the 2017 Young Men's Christian Associations in North America, says the annual report of that organization. The figures have just come from the press and show some interesting facts. The association now owns buildings and property valued at $67,865,000, with a fund of almost seven million dollars subscribed for new buildings. There are 83,881 railroad men in the association. Educational departments enroll 52,277 students; gymnasium classes and physical training, 271,506. The number of men and boys in Bible classes rose to 98,461, and 14,683 meetings were held in shops. The number of employed officers directing the work of the Y. M. C. A. has reached 2927.

THE DAY'S DOINGS ON THE STOCK EXCHANGE

The entire stock market yesterday noted a downward trend, more drops in quotations being noted on one session of the exchange than there have been for many months. Ewa, Koloa, Honokaa, Waialua and Brewery all took the downward path, while Oloa and Paauhau were the only sales noted to remain at a steady figure.

Ewa, on thirty shares, was quoted at 33 flat, a quarter's decrease; Koloa dropped a full point, Honokaa an eighth and Brewery almost two. Waialua went from 130 to 129 in two steps. The heaviest trading, which was in Brewery, brought that stock from 21.75 to 20.375 in one jump, and then let it to a quarter, at which figure almost three hundred shares changed hands.

The drop in Brewery was the quickest and furthest that has been noted for some time. Sales were:

Ewa—15 @ 33; 15 @ 33.
Koloa—5 @ 154.
Tanjong Oloa pd.—22 @ 42.50.
Oloa—50 @ 6.25.
Paauhau—30 @ 27; 5 @ 27.
Oahu Sugar—10 @ 32.50; 5 @ 32.50.
Honokaa—5 @ 17.875.
Waialua—5 @ 129.50; 20 @ 129; 5 @ 129; 5 @ 129.
Hon. B. & M.—10 @ 20.375; 50 @ 20.25; 50 @ 20.25; 10 @ 20.25; 50 @ 20.25; 50 @ 20.25; 50 @ 20.25.

Pacific Mail steamship Manchuria, according to Merchants' Exchange cable report, reached San Francisco at noon yesterday. It will be remembered that she had Prince Tsai Hsun aboard, the Chinese potentate whom Hawaiian Territorial Secretary Mott-Smith would not permit the Honolulu public to see. Whether martial law was declared in San Francisco or not, when the prince arrived, is not stated in the shipping cable.
